

Martell's Landing and Educational Center, together with Nancy Brown and John Dorr is excited, honored and proud to sponsor Timothy Cope who will instruct and lead a very personal journey of Walking on Fire. This event allows individuals the opportunity to overcome fears that may have been un-necessarily carried for generations and possibly many life times. What could you accomplish if you discovered that you actually could do so many of the things that you have been told you could not?

Timothy Cope is a writer, storyteller, shamanic practitioner and firewalker. In his sixty-four years, Timothy has: lived in a haunted read tarot cards professionally, unloaded boxcars professionally, hitchhiked throughout America, worked backstage on Broadway stranded in the desert without water, and wrestled with a mountain lion. He has always told the truth around the campfire.

For over twenty-three years he has taught classes in shamanism and facilitated drumming circles at Pathways, an alternative hea in Minneapolis. He has been ordained as a minister by the Center for Wholeness and is a former ministerial guide for the Lake Hi Spiritual Community. Timothy has walked on fire in the United States, Canada, Scotland and France. He is certified as a Fire Walk by the Sundoor School of Transpersonal Education in Twain Harte, CA. He lives in Minneapolis where he maintains a private shar practice.
